A.

Hello Jack,

I apologize for my action. I am really sorry that I did not keep my promise about returning your dictionary yesterday.

I am thankful to you because the dictionary was very useful and helped me on my exams. I was studying hard even when I was already tired since I wanted to get the best mark on my tests. Jack, you also brought an impact and I am grateful to you for it. By the way, after exams I was incredibly stressed and exhausted so I just went to bed and felt asleep for all day. Definitely, I will bring your dictionary to your house. If you can, I will come today.

I hope you are not angry to me on me. I am upset due to this situation and feel blame. I consider you a fascinate friend and I want to continue our friendships!

You are the best! waiting for your answer.

Best wishes.

Adina.
