E.
Nowadays there are plethora of viewpoints concerned leisure time of teenagers and how they prefer to use it. While one group of people believe that adolescents usually wasting all the free time, others deem that they use it wisely. As far as I can see modern teenagers always tend to make good use of free time.

To start with, since we are now living in the era of technology, and everyone has free access to the Internet, it is very easy to use such opportunities for self-development. There is no need to find yourself a teacher for learning new language, for example, for the reason that you can find a lot of lessons online and study by your own. To the addition, every person who is interested in some specific area, can find friends who would share hobby and experience with each other. This will definitely be very helpful and can give sense of community meaning that you are not alone who is engaged with this hobby. Such chance can improve and strengthen your interest and knowledge.

Secondly, today there are a lot of sport clubs, fitness classes and so on, that helps young people improve and make tremendous impact on their health. Since the fact that all teenagers are growing up organisms, their bodies needs active lifestyle.

~~In the final~~

In the final analysis, personally, I tend to think that modern adolescents are making good use of their free time now. Also, all the new innovations and changes are helping them to do that.
