She looked the door and went to her car. Julia was quite anxious concerning the situation happened last night. The murderer was an unequivocal professional. He literally knew what he was doing right there. The cold of his ice, the sharp movement was saying it all. Julia was really terrified to beg the help from others. However there were no another ways. She was not ready to face the murderer second time on her own. Julia was the only person survived at the party that night. The person who murdered everyone was not a simple stranger, he actually had an aim to kill certain people. Nevertheless, it went to far. After a while, Julia went to the police station to share all the information she knows. Unfortunately, policemen were not really interested in this case. Suddenly, Julia heard a policeman who was ready to listen to her story. They went to an empty room. She literally started saying everything she knows but Julia was so busy about telling that she did not even look at the policeman. After taking a look at this man Julia was stunned. She saw those eyes that she saw that night.
