Writing

She locked the door and went to her car. Her name was Anna. When she drove, someone called. It was her little son. He said that his lessons finished and he went to home. Anna had a strange feeling. At work she developed a new presentation in order to show her new idea to other companies abroad. Anna had a big company of smartphones. She was the richest woman in her town. After work she went to relax because she tired. Then Anna drove to home and when she came she was shocked. When she was at work burglars broke into and took all her money. She started crying because her son wasn't at home and she didn't know where he was. She took her phone and called to police. Police officers found her son he was at his friend's home but they couldn't find burglars. Anna with her son went to her parents and lived there. Burglars was the enormous trouble in her life and she never forgot this situation. After this she presented her idea and she sold her work for $ 14 billion. She was really happy. Police called and said that they had arrested burglars and they went to prison. Anna took her money and bought exciting house near to her parents and when she wasn't at home her son was with grandparents. Anna and her son had a good, happy and long life.
